

June 28, 2011

To Whom It May Concern,

In consideration of updating Countywide Planning Policies, please prioritize transit and non-motorized transportation to facilitate mobility for all people. Transportation consistently ranks high as an area of concern, and is vital to building strong economies and communities. As an unemployed citizen, I know that strong public and non-motorized transportation policies will spur economic development and employment opportunities for myself and many others.

Sincerely,

Drew Redman
4721 S. Mead St.
Seattle, WA 98118
drew_redman@mac.com